Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Norton Shores Election Commission consists of the City Clerk and two registered electors of the City who are appointed to indefinite terms and serve at the pleasure of the City Council. Mayor Nelund is recommending the appointment of Vicki Broge to fill a current vacancy and she has indicated a willingness to serve if appointed.

Ms. Broge is a former Council member and, when local jurisdictions each had an Election Board of Canvassers served on that as well. She has always had an interest in election procedures and processes and will be an asset to our Election Commission.
