Public Comment – General

Norton Branch Lead Librarian Alison Purgiel distributed current newsletters and shared that the summer reading program is now finished and the number of books read in all age categories surpassed the set goals. The library will begin their new seasonal Sunday hours in September and have one new staff member to assist with this. Ms. Purgiel also reported a great turnout at the Arts & Drafts Children's Area sponsored by the Muskegon Area District Library.

Council Member Moulatsiotis commended all involved for their part in providing a great time during the Community Picnic event at Arts & Drafts and gave special recognition to Council Member Beecham for her hard work serving guests the entire time.

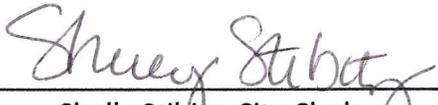

Council Member Flanders credited the City for maintaining a 50% funding ratio in the annual MERS actuarial even though the investment returns assumption rate was reduced.

Mayor Pro Tem Morgenstern expressed his frustration recently with the City's email system being down and suggested the City consider budgeting for on-site IT services.

City Administrator Mark Meyers reported that the road repair after the water main break on Henry Street at Seminole Road will be done tomorrow and that the newly constructed sidewalk on Padelt Street looks great and sidewalk construction near the Norton Industrial Center will begin soon. According to Public Works Director Jerry Bartoszek, the crosswalk by the high school on Seminole Road at Padelt is being programmed and signals installed and will be working before the start of the school year.

Mr. Meyers shared a recent conversation with owners of the former Kmart site stating that asbestos removal has begun that will take approximately three weeks and then the building will be demolished.

Meeting adjourned at 6:07 p.m.

Shelly Stibitz, City Clerk
